Student travel grants

To help Student Members for attending major comsoc conferences
- ICC, GLOBECOM, SECON, NOMS, INFOCOM, WCNC, CCNC, BlackSeaCom, Cloudnet, CNS, Dyspan, Healthcom, IM, SmartGridCom
- To all students (who are comsoc members) in the world

Conferences may also seek sources other than ComSoc STGs for travel grants, e.g.
- the NSF (National Science Foundation) program supports travel for students studying at a U.S. college or university.
STG requirements and application process

- An author of an accepted conference paper who is presenting the paper at the conference.
- A Student Member of the IEEE Communications Society when submitting the application.
- A full-time student registered toward a Bachelors, Masters, or Ph.D. degree in engineering or related fields in a college or university when submitting the application.
- The applicant must have not received an STG Award in the last 12-month period.
  - The STG awardees are selected by the STG Committee for each conference. The individual conference website will provide the instructions for the STG application as well as information regarding the approval/notification process. The STG consists of a monetary award to be used for registration fees, conference hotel expenses, and travel costs, which is the most appreciated aspect of the STG Award.
Issues and Challenges

- Recruiting officers and volunteers at local levels
- Sustainable membership and operations at local levels
- Supporting more DLTs/DSPs
  - DLT/DSP application process is not clear to DLs or chapter chairs
- Engaging existing chapters/reactivating chapters
- More publicity of chapter events – eNews for Chapters?
- Industry engagement

Like to hear feedback from all of you, the chapter chairs
Thank you!
