

2019 IEEE International Conference on Blockchain and Cryptocurrency

14-17 May 2019 // Seoul, South Korea

STUDENT TRAVEL GRANTS

A limited number of Student Travel Grants (STG) are available for ICBC 2019 conference student attendees.

*** Application deadline: March 20, 2019 *****

Eligibility Criteria

- The applicant must be the author or a co-author of a paper or poster accepted for presentation at ICBC 2019.
- The applicant must be a student registered toward a Bachelors, Masters, or Ph.D. degree in computer science, engineering or related field in a college or university when submitting his/her application.
- The applicant is expected to have registered for the conference at the time of application.
- The applicant may not receive more than one STG in any 12-month period.

Application Procedure

The applicant should send an application containing:

- full name, contact information, country, and citizenship;
- ethnicity and gender (optional, used to broaden the participation of under-represented students);
- institution, academic program (B.Sc., M.Sc or Ph.D.) he/she is currently attending, full-time or part-time student;
- name and email of the advisor;
- information on whether or not a paper has been accepted by the symposium;
- paper ID, title and type (full, short, poster);
- information on whether or not a first time conference participant;
- a letter that briefly summarizes the applicant's current research interests and accomplishments;
- a supporting letter from the advisor including his/her contact information, providing written statements regarding availability (or lack thereof) of travel funds for the student, and stating whether he/she is willing to commit to cover the cost of travel in excess of the travel grant;
- IEEE number if the applicant is a student member of IEEE Comsoc; and an at least 18 years of age acknowledgement.

Applications should be emailed to Carol Fung <cfung@vcu.edu> titled "ICBC STG application" by March 20, 2019. Application should be files in pdf format attached to the email. The Student Travel Grant Committee will notify applicants about award decisions starting from April 2.

Important Dates

Application deadline: March 20, 2019

Notification: starting from April 2, 2019