

One day to the sea: Riccione

Willing to spend one day on the beach, eating “piadina”, and enjoying a shopping experience?

Riccione is a small town well known in our region for at least two reasons: the sunny beaches, and Viale Ceccarini, the shopping boulevard of the regional coast.

A bus will start on Monday, September 10, at 8.30 am, from the center of Bologna, close to Piazza Maggiore. Participants to this journey will spend 1h30m on the way to Riccione, where they will be left free to spend the day; the bus will stop close to the beaches, and participants will be given a map and a date: the bus will leave Riccione for Bologna at 6.00 pm, with expected arrival time at 7.30 pm.

In September, beaches are neither full of people, nor empty. The weather is normally warm, not hot. It is the perfect time of the year for enjoying a tour to the beach.

Cost of the tour: 25 EUR/person

The tour is subject to the participation of at least 25 people.

Booking is expected, no later than on September 2, by send an email with subject “PIMRC18 – Riccione” to socialeventspimrc2018@momedaeventi.com
