

IEEE Central Montana Section

- Professional section meets several times per year
 - Typical meeting begins with social time (pizza) and then a presentation or tour
 - Spring 2018—tour of the new engineering building under construction in Bozeman.
 - Fall 2018—presentation on professional development and continuing education
- We support an active student branch at Montana State University
- As time allows, section officers attend IEEE Sections Congress and the NEA meeting.