ICF Mission Statement

The IEEE Canadian Foundation cultivates resources and relationships to advance IEEE's core purpose to foster technological innovation and excellence to benefit humanity.

ICF Mission Statement (cont'd)

The IEEE Canadian Foundation fulfills its purpose:

- by awarding special grants to new and innovative projects within Canada that seek to apply technology for the benefit of humanity, and
- by awarding grants to IEEE student branches in Canada to support IEEE McNaughton Learning Resource Centres, related scholarships and student initiatives , and
- by serving as the fund administrator for peer recognition programs and scholarships within Canada

Success Stories 1 of 4

The newest IEEE McNaughton Learning Resource Centre established at UBC Okanagan - the School of Engineering matched the ICF grant and provided space for the centre, which is open to all UBC students. UBC 3rd yr. student member Emily Landry initiated the grant application and subsequently was nominated by her branch counselor to receive a $5,000 ICF Scholarship for her leadership in the centre which facilitates design projects or learning about technical topics that strike one's curiosity.

Success Stories 2 of 4

2012 Electricity and Irrigation for Rural Ghana

Emily Landry travelled to Ghana to bring solar power enhancing communications in remote villages.

A contractor will train the villagers in the operation and maintenance of the solar power system, and help them to expand the system.

She left 3 solar cell phone chargers there to eliminate the need for a 1.5 hour drive to recharge the phones and laptops in the village.

Success Stories 3 of 4

2010 Innovative Technology for the Betterment of Humanity

An IEEE Canadian Foundation Humanitarian grant enables U Calgary students to develop and run a design-based competition to develop skills to apply technology towards global welfare.

2009 All Saints High School Robotics Team

An IEEE Canadian Foundation Special Grant enables an Ottawa area High School to compete in the FIRST Robotics Competition in Toronto. While initially having no IEEE connection, this success and a smaller subsequent grant in 2010 generated a connection with the local IEEE Section.

History 1 of 2

- 1955 – IRE Toronto Section members start a conference to showcase Canadian industry
- 1971 – Conference incorporated as IEEC Inc.
reserve funds set aside to ensure financial stability
- 1972 – Committee (CURF) funds IEEE student activities in Canada
- 1987 – Conference ceases, CURF continues
- 1989 – IEEC Inc. explores evolution into ICF

History 2 of 2

- 1992 – ICF is born – by-law changes to meet requirements of the Public Trustee of Ontario
- 1993 – Revenue Canada grants “registered charity status as a public foundation”
- 2004 – Montreal Conferences Inc. joins ICF with funds and bilingual volunteers
- 2008 – ICF membership includes all Sections
- 2012– ICF initiates Facebook presence

Who are the ICF Members

- Must be IEEE Senior Member or Fellow
- Most are former Section Chairs (in Canada)
- Some have been Student Branch Counselors or Chapter Chairs
- Some are former IEEE / IEEE Canada Officers
- Representation from every Canadian Section
- All are great IEEE volunteers

Structure

- Up to 30 Members
- 12 Directors
- 10 Committees
- 1 AGM, 4 Board Meetings
- No Staff – all volunteers, no travel costs
- Web-based meetings with teleconference
- Bilingual Services
- Web-based Grant Applications & Scholarship/Prize
Nomimations

Administration

- Members AGM – elect directors, approve budget, receive auditors report, appoint auditors

- Directors – elect members, run the business - e.g. Approve grants, investments & develop policies

- Committees
  - Grants – recommend/implement all grant related activities
  - Development – seek donations, recommend/implement strategy
  - Section Liaison – maintain contact with Sections (One ICF member in each Section)
  - Student Branch Liaison – maintain contact with Branches
  - Investment Advisory (outside experts) – recommend investment strategy
  - ExCom – President, VP Grants, VP Development, Treasurer, Secretary Finance
  - AND – Audit, Finance, Nominating & Corporate Governance, Webmaster

Financial Operation

- Initial Funding from IEEC Inc.
- Supplemented by MCI Inc., Ottawa Conference
- General Funds from Individual Donors
- Directed Funds from IEEE Canada, Sections, TELUS, CHECE, IEEE Foundation, Individual Donors
- Investment Income

- Disbursement Requirements (CRA): 3.5% of Assets

Donations

One Time or Annual Donations

- On-line 'Canada Helps' via our website – instant receipts
- IEEE Annual Renewal Process – on-line or mail
- Mail a cheque to our Treasurer

Planned Donations

- A bequest via our Treasurer
- A directed donation to endow an annual scholarship, award, prize. e.g. $20,000 donation → $1,000/yr
