Pulling vTools Meetings Feed into WordPress (RSS)

- Go to Appearance -> Widgets page.
- Drag the RSS Widget from the left and drop it into one of the sidebars.
- Paste the RSS URL into the “Enter the RSS feed URL here:” field and give the Widget a title.
- Click the “Save” button.

The screenshot shows the WordPress Widgets interface. At the top, there is a 'Search' widget configuration box with a search input field. Below it are 'Slider Widget' and two widget positions: 'Row 1 Column 1' and 'Row 1 Column 2'. The 'Row 1 Column 2' widget is expanded, showing the 'RSS: Upcoming Events' widget configuration. The configuration includes:

- Enter the RSS feed URL here:
- Give the feed a title (optional):
- How many items would you like to display?
- Display item content?
- Display item author if available?
- Display item date?
- Delete | Close

- Update the IEEE Sites theme Home Page Layout to accommodate the RSS Widget.

The screenshot shows a customization panel for the IEEE Sites theme. At the top right is a 'Save & Publish' button. Below it, a dropdown menu indicates 'You are customizing IEEE Section Template'. The 'Active theme' is 'IEEE Sites Theme', with a 'Change' button. A list of customization categories includes 'Site Title & Tagline', 'Header Options', 'Social Media URLs', 'Google Custom Search', and 'Home Page Layout'. The 'Home Page Layout' section is expanded, showing three settings: 'Enable / Disable Widgetized Home Page' (set to 'enable'), 'Show slider / main image' (set to 'show'), and 'Row 1 column layout' (set to '8c 4c').

In the Spring of 1929, a small group of engineers, mainly from Southern Bell Telephone and local power companies, petitioned for the formation of a local section of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers (AIEE). On May 22, 1929, the Board of Directors of the AIEE authorized the organization of a section to be known as the Birmingham Section of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and to have as its territory 21 counties in north central Alabama. General W. E. Bare of the Southern Bell Telephone Co. called an organization meeting on June 21, 1929, and acted as temporary Chairman. Several leadership changes took place during the first year as a result of personnel transfers, and the Birmingham Section was suddenly confronted with the deadening effect of the Great Depression. During this time there was little interest and the section activities practically came to a halt. By September 1932 an effort was made to revive the Section and new officers were elected. In May of 1934 a petition was made to AIEE Headquarters to change the Section's name to the Alabama Section and to increase its territory to include the entire state. Early in 1938 the Muscle Shoals Section was formed in seven counties in northern Alabama, and several counties in Mississippi and Tennessee. Later that year the new section petitioned for and obtained the transfer of Madison and Marshall counties from the Alabama Section. In 1953 this organization apparently combined with the Huntsville Subsection of the East Tennessee Section of AIEE to form the North Alabama Section. About the same time the Huntsville Subsection of the Atlanta Section of the Institute of Radio Engineers (IRE) was elevated to Section status. In 1949 the Mobile-Pensacola Subsection was formed with counties from southern Alabama and part of the Florida panhandle. Then in 1953, this Subsection set out on its own as a Section, leaving the Alabama Section. The Montgomery Subsection was formed in 1953 to represent 20 counties in central Alabama. On January 1, 1963 the IRE and the AIEE merged to form the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE). The Alabama Section and other units of each of these two organizations then became units of IEEE. Major conferences hosted by the Alabama Section include: National Telecommunications Conference (1978), Southeastcon (1992), IAS Pulp & Paper Conference (1996), Vehicular Technology Conference (2002).

- Create a Page called Our Officers, for example, and paste the [do_widget id="wibofficerfeedwidget-3"] or [do_widget wibofficerfeedwidget] shortcode into the content box.
- Publish your Page.

- Create a Page called Our Communities, for example, and paste the [do_widget id="wibotherunitsfeedwidget-3"] or [do_widget wibotherunitsfeedwidget] shortcode into the content box.
- Publish your Page.

- The output of the feed looks like this:
