

Name:

Aditi Khaire

Photo:Awards:

IEEE IC – Outstanding Student Volunteer Awards

Brief Bio:

Hola.! My name is Aditi Khaire. I'm a student at AISSMS IOIT, Pune at Electronics and telecommunication department. My hometown is Chandrapur, Maharashtra. Currently I'm in BE – Final Year Electronics and telecommunication. For the year 2020-21 I was the Chair of IEEE Student Branch AISSMS IOIT, Pune. I was awarded with Best Student Volunteer, IEEE Pune Section for the year 2019- 20. My Hobbies are Volunteering and community involvement, Travel, Listening to music. Some of my major skills are Leadership skills, Collaboration skills, Communication skills.

Achievement for which the award was given:

I was awarded with Best Student Volunteer, IEEE Pune Section for the year 2019- 20. For the year 2020-21 I was the Chair of IEEE Student Branch AISSMS IOIT, Pune. We started a HAC Lab at our student branch where many agriculture related projects are made. I headed a International Conference was held on emerging smart computing and informatics(IEEE – ESCI 2020). Also we conducted various competitions like Content Writing , Game of Circuit, Circuit Mania, Extempore and many more. Many virtual activities like How to conduct Virtual Labs, Real Time control of Electric Machine Drives, German Education System and Exam Guidance and many more. On the occasion of IEEE Day 2020 we conducted a food drive and we were able to feed almost 600 people.